

Deportation or any other legal action will always remain on a personal record, so nothing should be signed or agreed without the presence of an attorney.

In Case of Incarceration:

Ask to speak with an attorney. If you do not have one, you only have the right of a free attorney in case of criminal charges, but not for deportation proceedings. Always carry cash to purchase items from the commissary like mailing supplies, personal hygiene items, food, etc.

Carry cash to purchase phone usage time. Calls are collect and only work for land line phones, NO CELL PHONES.

Always have your contact list numbers and attorney numbers ready.

The numbers you have as contacts must be for reliable people who can contact an attorney or help.

Some home phone numbers do not accept blocked calls. The detainee must pay for the calls (calls are purchased only once a week so use the money wisely).

Dream Act Now!!!

“Those who profess
to favor freedom,
yet deprecate
agitation,
are men who want
crops without plowing
the ground;
They want rain
without thunder and
lightning;
They want the ocean
without the awful roar
of its many waters.”
